

going to travel back there.

(You mean if somebody dies, they leave the camp? They don't go back there at all?)

Jenny: No, they take good care of their camps. They carry their camps and they just move away. They don't go back there. You know, and when someone dies like that they get so hurt they even cut themselves on the flesh.

(Irrelevant conversation) 7

END OF TAPE