Page 22

. _

(Well, my goodness.)	•	•
• He raised all his stuff, you	know. Didn't take	money to live, much th	nat day.
(Not, it didn't.)	•	,	•
Had their own stuff. I know	w one time he had a	little over three hund	ired head of cattle. Course lived on fre	e range, you know.		• • •
(Well, he was quite a farmer	and rancher then, w	rasn't he?)	• 4
Oh, yeah, he was. Just had	a little place, and	a barn there. Just ra	ised corn
you know.	• • •		•
(Yes.)		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
He just run his cattle on st	alk field, you know.	Didn't have to feed	much in the winter.	, · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	/	•
(Úh-huh)	• •	· ; · · ·
Yeah. (static) Lived up ther	e you know.	, · · ·	•
(Yes sir.)	- a
Joe one of the boys runs tha	t filling station th	ere where
(End of Side BT-355)	,	~ ·.
		,	, ·
	*	•
	·~ ·	•
*			· .
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
			•
* K		· · ·
K .		•
•			•
•
		. • ·
			•
	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,