

thresh, and they would go on to the next place. And course we would have to lend, in those days have to lend each neighbor a few days work. And he would do the same for us. That's how it went in those days. And so, and getting a little older about that time, well it seemed that most of the families wanted to have their sons a little better education and they would send their -----

(End of Side A)