

(This was before allotment time.)

It had to be done. The Dawes Commission and people were getting this Indian territory ready for statehood.

(Uh-huh)

And they had to do this before they could allot the land and get the Indians settled down.

(Yes)

So that's when this survey was made.

(Uh-huh)

Now the original field books that go along with this map are still--Glenn Ashley, who is our county surveyor here, has that set of books. Written in long hand, describing--I've read--you know just come along this section here.

(Yeah)

And he lives out there where--.

(Yes I've seen--)

Hanging on the wall here now.

(It's the map of the Cherokee Nation, 1895. When that one was made--)

Now over here west of the track.

(Uh-huh)

And Delawares east of the track you see.

(Yes sir.)

DISTRICT BOUNDARIES

And the district divides right square in Vinita here. See this bottom line is the district boundary. Here's the county see.

(Yes)

The districts are all--. You were asking about the court--
