

was about maybe two or three of us go together at one time. And we didn't have ...didn't have beds to sleep on those days, or even had a table. But later on, as I remember, we had a house...a house built. And we were still didn't have anything up to day like it is today. But we were in the house. Had windows and doors. And later it was improved more so than it was. So that's just about all I can remember at that time. We wore dresses that was made just real plain. And sometimes we wear, our parents...my mother wore her Indian clothes all the time. And so did my father. And sometimes we put our Indian clothes on, on special occasions. But many times, other times we wore...we wore just plain dresses. Well, in the wintertime if we were wearing dresses we had coats. And we had shoes. The kind of shoes we wore were I remember were high top shoes. We had to lace it up. It wasn't to our knees. It was below. I remember the first pair of shoes I had, I was really proud. And they were wine-colored. And when we wore our Indian clothes. We wore our blanket or shawl. I imagine it was a shawl. Beautiful colors, have fringes. Sometimes we wore blankets.

MADE MOCCASINS, ETC. PREPARATIONS BEFORE PEYOTE MEETINGS

(Did you make anything like shawls or anything like that?)

No, as I remember. We learned to made moccasins. And we made our own moccasins. At the time, we always all use to get ready for...for this church, peyote meeting church. We used to get ready for that. And they tell us there going to be a meeting next week, maybe week after. And we would have to be prepared. To have to make our own moccasins. And wear our Indian clothes. And we...the morning of the peyote meeting, we use to all prepare to go in there. We wore our Indian clothes. And took refreshments in there that to partake of that morning. We used to take candy of all kinds. And sometimes cookies and different thing for the refreshment before the noon hour. So there was so much that we made at that time, as I remember. Later on, there was older ones had to make these yarn belts.
