

Mrs. Payne: They come out here in 1904.

(Yeah)

Doesn't know if he can tell you where to find it. Run the mail hack.

(Yeah)

I seen them boys. I believe so. He lived up there by Albion someplace. But he died not too long ago.

(Yeah)

He lived up there close to where Willy Knight lived. I think I know where he's at. Lewis Miser lived in there. Yeah--yeah.

TRAVELED BY FOOT - WAGON - OR HORSEBACK

Mrs. Payne: Wagons and horseback, only way except on foot.

(Wagons and horseback,)

Yeah, sure.

(Looks like that would be awful bad and muddy when it was bad weather.)

Mrs. Payne: Sure. Mud on wagons going up the hub.

I've seen the main street of Vinita when you couldn't get up and down in a wagon.

(Used to be that way. Had an artesian well, used to be.)

No, you couldn't get up and down in a wagon.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

Mrs. Payne: Lots things have changed. Like Thanksgiving my daughter, our grand-daughter came in with our great grandson. And oh this modern, new stuff you know. The baby bottle is already filled. you can buy them out of the drugstore or someplace, already filled. All you have to do is take the cap off and start feeding them. And she said, "Wasn't like that when my daddy was a baby. Was it?" I said, "Nope. I done my diapers this way, I just throw them in a sack and burn them."
