

cousins killed. We lived down there close to Fort Sill. / Where it is now.

(Yeah.)

Ed Byers and Bill Beck.

Viella: And the girls was down washing. They had a sister and a cousin. And somebody just come along and shot them right there.

(Well.)

Never did know what they killed them about.

(Well, there must of have been some bitter feelings that probably stem way back. In Georgia maybe.)

Might have been.

Viella: I don't know if any other states had anymore bandits and outlaws or not.

(Well I don't know. In this Good Hope Community where was their school house-- their old school house?)

Viella: Well, from this corner down here. It was a mile west and a half mile north.

(Half a mile north. It's been gone a long time though I guess hasn't it?)

Yes it has been.

SCHOOLS - LOCATION

(Was that one, one of the first schools in this community up here?)

No they built it after statehood.

(Oh, uh-huh.)

Viella: But Scourgeout, I imagine it was about the first.

Yeah, that Scourgeout was an old school that was here--(not clear).

Viella: That was just a little bitty--what was it a log cabin?

Log cabin.

(Well that's such an interesting name for a school.)

Viella: Yeah, Scourgeout.
