

(Why sure. On acorns and bermuda. Anything they could get.)

And in the summer time. They get so thin. You know. Especially the sow. They get so thin. They get all this hair. Throw it up like that. Boy it sure scared me. I seen them.

(That's what they call razorback.)

Oh it wasn't razorback really.

(Yeah just old poor skinny hogs.

Yeah. Going along about this time year. They get fat on acorns and things.

(Uh-huh)

SOLD FORTY ACRES OF LAND FOR FORTY DOLLARS

"About that forty acres. And I'll give you the title of it. A deed and an abstract. Out of the same money. I'll buy it back."

(And that was a white man?)

Yeah. You know him.

(Yeah)

So, they told me that. Now I agreed. Well I said, "Maybe you're not the only one interested in this land. Maybe someone else want to buy it." Sure enough just about the time they produced the paper. Another man come in. He wanna buy.

(Uh-huh)

But the way he want to buy it. I could went ahead and sell it. Got more for it. But he didn't want to buy it like I wanted to sell, you know. He wanted to buy every bit of this land, And give what he can give, about forty dollars. His first bid on it was forty dollars. And he said "I'll give you a life time lease. Let you live on it just as long as you live. If you die first, if your wife is living. She can live there till she die." And then he'll take it over. It's a life time lease. 'Course I couldn't see that.

(No)
