

That's right. (Next two sentences not clear). Never did hire out. Work!Work!

(Yeah)

INSISTS THAT HIS CHILDREN HAVE EDUCATION

And when my children were big enough to go to school. And I know what they're going to have to have.

(That's right.)

I encouraged my children to go to school. To learn. Learn. They going to have to have it.

(Going to have to have it.)

And I said look at me now. How go way back. I don't know nothing. So they went ahead. They start that same school where I used to go. And they educated them. And I had--we had to send out children to Little Kansas.

(Yeah)

And it was as fur from. It was a mile this way and a mile this way. Where we could come. Take the highway. I mean that road there.

(That's right.)

They had to walk lot of time. They miss and miss. Start in you know weather. When it raining or snow. They stay at home. And they missed school. And I got to thinking. Got to thinking. And so finally I made up my mind. If I get my children somewhere in boarding school.

(Right)

And I went to this here case worker, you call it, today. So she was good enough to help me. She was good enough to help me. To get my children off to school. So I sent my children to Wyandotte. Where I went to school.

(Uh-huh)

All four of them. I went--sent them up there.

(Well)
