

(Yeah)

And this little one. My younger boy. He was the only one left. In school. He quit. He went to Jay. But he didn't like it. He said, "Dad can you get me in a different school." They said, "Well, where would you like to go?" "We'll try." He said, "I'd like to go to Sequoyah."

(Uh-huh)

So I sent him. Quick as the school was out. And I sent got an application. Said I want to send him to Sequoyah School, Indian school there.

FEELS UNKINDLY TOWARD GOVERNMENT - DISCRIMINATION

Government got anything to do with these Indians. Like me. Not trying to help me seems like. When it comes to war. They they use lot of those boys.

(That's right)

Boys fight for government. Get killed. Course I didn't lose any of my boys to that.

(Uh-huh)

They served. Well, one of them still yet in. But one of them got out last June. I guess our people they just don't got much to say.

(No)

They just don't say much. Whatever the government want them do why they just go ahead and do it.

(Yeah they don't say much. And they don't argue about anything.)

That's right.

(And maybe they feel it wouldn't do any good.)

Yeah. Some of them I know.

FATHER BECAME A PREACHER

(They had stomp dances.)

Yeah. I don't know just where. You know my dad used to go to those places.

(Uh-huh)
