

AUNT CALLED HIM "RANDY"

Lot of them thought my name was Randolph. Lot of them Oto boys. My aunt called me Randy.

(Yeah. Well that's something.)

Lot of them live over there beside this highway.

(Yeah)

Course my aunt always called me Randy, you know. When she'd see me you know.

(Yeah)

ROSE DAUGHERTY WAS WELL LOVED AT CHILOCCO

Rose Daugherty--She's a matron over little boys building at Chilocco.

(Now Rose Daugherty yeah, now she was matron when I was there.)

She'd been there a long time.

(Yeah)

Well she retired and I bought her a place over here. She finally wound up living with her sister. She died there.

(Yeah)

She was in her nineties, about ninety seven when she died. Turned out to be a little bitty woman. She used to be a large woman.

(Yeah. She sure took good care of us poor boys up there.)

Boy she was hard to beat. Boy, she raised a lot of good athletes up there, didn't she?

(Yes, she did. You know she let them play ball down in her clothing room.)

Yeah, had a little goal down in there.

(They make a ball out of an old sock and stuff if full of rag or something and play ball down there.)

Yeah, they did. Volleyball too, you know. Play in that hall down there.

Minnett Hall, in bad weather.

(Yeah)

It was a long hall down there, you know. From the left, left end of home, too.
