

GOOD FOOD AT CHILOCCO IN EARLY DAYS

Yeah. Remember (not clear) over there. We had enough to eat. I get hungry for that old hash we used to eat now, you know.

(Yes sir, that hardtack.)

Hardtack. Man didn't that diningroom smell good when you walked in there.

(It sure did.)

You'd be about starved to death. (Laughter) They-- I don't know what it was, we was young and hearty, had a good appetite. And they didn't feed us very much. Boy we'd run out of them and could eat a prize raised bull. (laughter)

(Yes sir we sure--)

(Sentence not clear--laughter.)

(Everything)

We'd watch it.

(Cow that walked by there. And I never got enough to eat and I ate all the time. And I was always hungry after that.)

Yeah they got after us one time. They said you boys quit swiping the corn.

You eat more corn than the hogs.

(Well we did I guess.)

Lot of boys go down there, you know.

(Yeah that Waukarusha Creek bank would be full of those camp fires at night.

Get any old kind of time, tie a stick on it, parch corn.)

SCHOOL UNIFORMS AND RIFLES

(Well back in 1909 and '10 did you have to wear uniform there at Chilocco?)

Yeah

(They had blue collars didn't they Randy?)

Yeah. We had to dress up every Sunday. Go to school we had to put on uniforms.

(Hum)
