

Go to Sunday School you know.

(Yeah)

What they used to do.

(Yeah, I remember those old baggy uniforms.)

Oh yeah.

Wrap leggings.

(Wrap leggings. We drug those old Krag rifles around there until we wore them out.)

I heard about that, they're fighting up there that time.

(Yeah)

BELT LINE MEANT PUNISHMENT

We had a belt line. Somebody get out of line you know why, ran the belt line. Them old boys with belts just run 'em through there. You better hold your head right or boy you sure get hurt. If somebody hit you with a buckle why they send him through then. Some old boy don't like you--

(They sure give to you. Of course Cat in my day it was a whole lot different from your day.)

Oh yeah.

(I guess they were a whole lot stricter in your day.)

Oh yeah. Man this was strictly outlaws went there.

(Yeah)

You couldn't go there under fourteen. And if the parents couldn't handle them, the Guardians sent them up there you know.

(Yeah)

And they didn't have no money hardly. And they'd steal everything. Steal your eyeballs if you didn't shut your eyes right at night.