

MILITARY TRAINING AT SCHOOL

(Well was a lot of those boys that went into service in World War I up there?
Yeah lot, lot of them volunteered right there.

(Yeah right there.)

Mr. Thomas: Lot of them volunteered up there, World War I. Lot of boys never got trained. Chilocco used military training then. We knowed how.
We'd go out there and drill some of our teams when we'd have commencement you know.

(Yeah I drilled in there, marched, paraded.)

We'll never see those days as good as them.

(No we won't.)

They're gone.

(We won't see anything like that anymore.)

RECORDED INDIAN MUSIC IS PLAYED

Mr. Thomas: (Sentence not clear.) They raised quarter horses too.

(Yeah, yeah there was several Quapaw Indians went up there. A few Wyandottes.

Mr. Thomas: Yeah. They're Wyandottes.

(Yeah)

Mr. Thomas: (Sentence not clear)

You, you like Indian song.

(Oh yes.)

I've got some in here. I let you tape some of them. (Sentence not clear.)

(Yeah well I'd like to hear some of them.)

(Indian songs are played while interview continues).

(Now what group is that singing?)

Kiowas

(Kiowas)
