

I wish he would.

(But it's still broken.)

I can't lift anything now.

(But he said that--)

Methodist preacher, and he went over there and got him. And he was still living.

(Bare was a Methodist preacher. He was a Methodist preacher.)

Yeah he was a Methodist preacher. He was known to have, he preached in Tahlequah.

(Uh-huh)

At that time he made his round every quarter.

(Yeah)

Up in Honey Creek too. He had Honey Creek, Tahlequah, and then Dog creek.

(Uh-huh)

He had the Timpson Chapel.

(Well he was quite an active man in his time.)

Yeah. And you could hear him sing oh, for a mile and a half. Boy he had a voice on him. He had one of the strongest voices as I've ever heard.

You say you found two extra graves.

(Three)

Three?

(Uh-huh. That we haven't that we don't know, they have stones by them.)

There was an Osage buried there. Now what his name was I never did learn.

Tsa-tseh. So I seen it. See that's the Osage.

(Uh-huh).

He was buried there. He was buried on the north edge.

(Uh-huh)
