

It was for the old house. Including improvements that she had put on there. Give her that money for this house. Course they didn't know then that was the way it would be. They they had the strip payment, you know. The Government had to divide some way or another help him include his, he help me include mine. He really took the claims for the house I have an idea. 'Cause it was the old house. He was born in 1881 and I was born in 1884. I told you there was one in between us.

(Yeah)

Sixteen. He was able to stake a claim by himself. And my other brother and I were too young to enroll.

(Yes)

SHAWNEES COME FROM KANSAS

That Cemetery wasn't started until after the Shawnees came here from Kansas City.

(Uh-huh)

They sold out up there. And the government told them to come down here, those redskins down here would take care of them.

(Yeah, And then did Jake Longtail start that cemetery there?)

Yes.

(He gave the land for it, too?)

Yeah.

(Uh-huh)

See he come from Kansas City, John Franklin, Sol Ketchum, and Ben Carpenter. There was a whole bunch of them up there in the hills. The Whites, son of Joe White I knew quite a number of them.

(Yeah. Yeah there was the Parkers that came too I think.)

Hum?

(There was some Parker.)

Yeah.

(There's lots of Secondines and--)
