

fireplace or nothing.

(Yeah)

Had court right in there.

(Well. That was Old Red Cloud Duncan.)

Yeah. Red Cloud Duncan.

RESENTS TREATMENT BY THE GOVERNMENT

(Uh-huh. Yeah them was hard times then.)

Yes sirree. They sure had hard time. We poor like the rest too. We poor, and the rest had hard time.

(That's right.)

We in this country the way the Indians been treated. Like that. Just give us this land long as the water flows.

(Yeah.)

Lots of water. Now then the government take all the land over.

(Seem like the government taken it all.)

Uh-huh. Yes sir they taken it all. Over here at Pryor, across there I think there is ten thousand acres lost. Do you know how far back it used to be?

(Yes sir.)

Ten thousand acres right in there. Supposed to be not be able to buy this land so some people building their homes.

(That's right.)

Uh-huh.

(Yeah if they--if the governments got a lot of land. They could give it to the Indians.)

Yeah. The government ain't got no need for that much. You can't farm it.

(No. Lot of it just lays there. They don't do anything with it.)

Laying there. Ain't nothing to do. Just laying there. Somebody ought to have a little house there. Try to make a living in there.
