

been here every since.

(Uh-huh)

Yeah, there was a creek filled with water oh about couple hundred yards here from there. From where we lived.

(Uh-huh)

At four o'clock. Every morning you know the turkeys you know they just be gobbling.

(Yeah)

Sitting up on the bank.

(Yeah)

They just like tame chickens.

(Well. You can't see that now. Can you?)

Naw. You can't see that now. You don't see--

(You had lots of deer then.)

Yeah lots of deer. Still lots of deer here.

(Uh-huh)

But they wouldn't let us kill none.

(Yeah)

They have them trained.

(I think so.)

Yeah I think so they come out.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH

(Uh-huh. Well where did you go to school when you was young fellow?)

We went to down there.

(Uh-huh)

You know that church-school they called Cedar Bluff.

(Cedar Bluff)

Yeah.

(Uh-huh)

Its a good two mile below the creek.
