

COMPARES THRIFTYNESS OF WHITE MAN AND INDIAN

No. Indians here have a hard time. White man you know he taken everything you know. Maybe he come here want to buy a piece of land to make his land.

And they build a house there. He be owing for that land. Build a house.

Move on it. Go to work. Pretty soon he got a cow.

(Uh-huh)

Pretty soon he got a horse.

(Yeah)

Pretty soon he got pigs. But not too long they've got it all paid for.

And it is all his. That's the way this man stay on his feet.

(Yeah)

That's how it is how a white man can get on, get a start. But Indians they can't get no start. I know of two or three fellows, you know; that had a good chance to get a start. They all just fell down.

(Uh-huh)

Yeah.

(Well the Indian is different from white man.)

Oh yeah.

(He likes to live in the woods.)

Yeah.

(And he likes to live that way. And he gets his living from the wood.)

Sure likes the hunting ground.

(He likes the hunting ground.)

Uh-huh. Yeah.

(And you can't change it.)

No you can't change--

(No you can't change the Indian. Government been trying long time to change it.)
