

Yeah. That's just the way they been, that's just the way intended to be.

(That's right.)

That's just the way.

(Yeah the Indians is supposed to live that way.)

Indians put here not get rich or nothing. Just to get by.

(Yeah)

Just to get by is all their living they need.

(Uh-huh)

But white man, you know, he's been put here to get rich.

(Yeah)

Pretty soon he's got a lot of cash.

(Uh-huh)

I know there's two fellows over here not too long ago, maybe ten years, twenty years, thirty. Those two men, you know, they come here. They just had one pair of britches on. That's all when they come here.

(Uh-huh)

And white man lives and grows. That's how he come. You don't know how much money he got today.

(Well, yeah.)

Has lots of cattle. Lots of land. He come here with just one britches.

TRAVEL BY FOOT, WAGON, OR HORSEBACK IN EARLY DAYS

(Well how did they travel around when you was young fellow?)

In a wagon.

(Just in a wagon.)

Horse back.

(Horse and wagon.)

Some go on foot. Covered wagon. People go twenty miles to go to church, wagon.
