

they went down several thousand feet I guess. And that water just popped up through it.

(Hum)

Yeah it boiled over just like that.

(Well)

And they cut a ditch from there on down east of town. They just let that water run.

(Uh-huh)

And that water killed the grass about that much on each side of the ditch.

(Hum)

Killing the grass. I don't know what it was. And finally they stopped it up somehow.

(Well)

I think its still there yet, stopped up. That thing, that plug, was there for the water to flow up there.

(Yeah)

Yeah it was there out on the street. I seen it.

LOCATION OF OTHER TOWN AND COMMUNITIES IN EARLY DAYS

(Well let's see Moody's way down this way. Its an old place, too isn't it?)

Yeah its an old place too.

(Uh-huh)

Moody's an old place. They used to have convention down there didn't they?

(Uh-huh. Used to have Indian convention.)

Yeah, uh-huh. All day convention. I don't know what denomination it was.

I don't know what group.

(Yeah)

I don't know which it was.

(Well let's see, Johnson Prairie is that old place too?)
