

One, one, great big old bug like that get on leaves eat it up. Have to pick them every morning. They'll be little things here one morning and next morning they'd be great big ones.

(Well. They grow fast then.)

Yeah they grow fast. They live on that tobacco leaf, I guess.

(Yeah)

Where was you raised?

(Uh I was born down Tahlequah)

Tahlequah

(Yeah then I was raised up Vinita)

Vinita. Where you was born and raised up.

(Yeah)

DISTRICTS AND COURTHOUSES

(Words not clear)

(Inaudible - static)

(You are eighty-three now?)

I be eighty-four (words not clear)

(Yeah you sure seen a lot of things in your time.)

Well not too much either. I've never been anywhere.

(But you've seen this country change through here though.)

Yes sir. I never been to Tahlequah. I went down there oh about a month ago here. We went down there to Tahlequah. Kansas City first one that, went that far north. And Fort Smith as far as I've been.

(Yeah)

Wilburton that's as far south as far as I've been.

(Did you ever get to go to any other Indian Cherokee Nation courthouse?)

Yeah.

(Uh--you know they had courthouse at Saline here.)
