

(Yeah)

So much wicked people in the world. And they tell me now the people they just as wicked as in the old days.

(Yeah its just as wicked now as it was then.)

Yeah. (not clear--static) And if I didn't think about God that place wouldn't work for me.

(That's right)

Wouldn't work. I begin to think about that, you know.

(Uh-huh)

And I thought I have to speak about God. You know before I lay my plan down you know. That way there's still one more, live one more day tomorrow.

(That's right.)

I guess I live up and (not clear) sometime would work.

(Well whatever happens, I always figure He knows what is best to do.)

Yeah He knows.

(Maybe it won't be like the way we want it.)

INDIANS MADE SALT AT YONKERS

Oh yeah. (words not clear) Remember. (not clear) He knows me and I know Him.

(Uh-huh)

William Hughes they call his name. Went to river one day and I couldn't get across.

(Uh-huh)

Rivers coming us. And this one happen to come along. Had a boat there.

I asked him to take me across and he did. So I went on. Last time I seen him.

(Hum)

(Not clear--sentence)

(Well)
