

(The Blackberry roots)

Uh-huh

(Uh-huh. What ailment did they use the Blackberry root for?)

Well let's see they used it for reumatism you know.

(Uh-huh)

And this here, oh what's that there, make greens out of them, what grows at the house.

(Oh yeah)

Pokeberries.

(Yeah pokeberry)

A person taste of that, that pokeberry taste strong.

(Yeah)

Roots

(Uh-huh)

I learn to mix wine out of them berries.

(Yeah)

Uh-hum.

(Yeah, I've heard of that.)

Uh-hum.

(Uh-hum)

I never did drink none of it. Drink Elderberry. Elderberry wine is good.

(Sassafras tea isn't that good for kidney trouble.)

Uh-huh. It's good for blood you know.

(Yeah, good for blood.)

Uh-huh. Two kinds. One kind for medicine and the other kind for food.

(Uh-huh)
