

(Yeah)

And he had them on a muzzle. Dogs had a muzzle.

(Hum)

When they kept quiet they wouldn't have to load up again.

(Yeah)

And they say a lot of them in the old days up at the end of this prairie. Every day when night came there was quail on the prairie. Great many. And I had a pump gun. And they pick up, right across my feet you know. Two of them. And I shot twice at them. I guess I shot too quick. I didn't get 'em. I just sit down and watched them fly away. We lived way down there towards Mustang.

(Hum)

I never even touched them. I shot at them as soon as they raised.

(Yeah)

I'm going to (not clear). But I've killed a lot of quail you know just pbt shoot them.

(Yeah. Have you got quail around here?)

Yeah. There's some quails here. This season I didn't think there be any quail. There was.

(Uh-huh)

People kill off all them, quail.

IN EARLY DAYS, COULD GET BLACKPOWDER SHELLS FOR A DOLLAR A BOX

We could get blackpowder shells for a dollar a box.

(Black powder shells for a dollar a box.)

Uh-huh

(Well. When you shoot made big smoke.)

Yeah. Make lot of smoke when he shoots.
