

(Yeah, Yeah he has move away so he can see.)

Yeah. Them black powder shells used to be good shells.

(Yeah)

(Not clear) shells.

(Yeah)

Uh-huh. Twenty-two rifle shells you know they fifteen cents short and twenty cents for long.

(Well)

You can only afford caps now.

(Yes times have sure changed.)

Uh-huh. (Sentence not clear.)

(Well)

SKUNK OIL FOR MEDICINE

I seen big old skunk, train run over, way back there this side of Locust Street when I was going to wown. Last Monday. I thought I'd pick him up when I went back by. When I come around there by pave road, I forgot about it.

(Uh-huh)

Somebody run over him. I seen a truck standing back east of there. I guess them the ones run over him.

(Yeah. You ever use any skunk oil,)

Uh-huh, Used to when we had bad colds, you know.

(Yeah)

Soak that. Mother took that warm it up yuu know and took a teaspoon full. And they make us taste. Sure is hard to swallow.

(Yeah that skunk oil is hard to swallow alright.)

It feels good after you take it.

(Oh Yeah)
