

Blacksmith, you don't see no blacksmith no more.

(No sir you sure don't. They just, gone I guess.)

Yeah they, I guess they don't have anything to do.

(Don't have anything to do.)

Don't have no horse to shoe. (Sentence not clear). Okoee, you know they had blacksmith shop there you know.

(Well)

(Sentence not clear). This side of the creek there.

(Yeah)

(Sentence not clear). Them fellows would meet in there.

(Yeah)

Abe Dickerson was one of them. And Billy Friend.

EARLY DAYS WHEN THEY HAD ROPING CONTESTS

(Yeah. You had some good times there didn't you?)

Yeah, Paul Nugent. Had roping contest there.

(Yeah)

Come from Locust out there.

(They just come from all around.)

Yeah--Come from place over there from Wagoner.

(And they all come from, lot of them come from Shawnee Hills.)

People there you haven't seen in a long time.

(Yeah)

Everybody come. They all come and stay up there two or three days.

(Well)

ORPHANS HOME BURNED IN 1903

(Not clear) the Asylum burpt down.

(What they call the Orphans Home.)