And the Tucker's burned it down. (What did they call that school?) That's Carsolowry. (It was Carsolowry.) They wanted it named Tucker. (Oh, the wanted to flame it Tucker.) They burned it down. (Well)

And that burned down half a mile back west and they build another schoolhouse. (Uh-huh)

-17-

They all had a box supper, you know.

'(Yeah)

Finally, they got enough money to build a new one. I went to school there for quite a while then for a time I went to that Asylum.

(Yeah)

It's down the road. They finally built a new school house out west.

They sold that other school house building to a fellow named Ed Davis. They called him Marbletop.

(Well)

Ain't got no hair on his head.

(Yeah)

They call him Marbletop. (Laughter)

(Marbletop. Marpletop Davis.)

Uh-huh. They know him now. (Laughter)

(Uh-huh. Well that was the only school you had around here then.)
