

CABIN CREEK BATTLE GROUND

(What cemeteries do you have for this community?)

Carsolowry.

(Still use Carsolowry's cemetery. Yeah that's an old cemetery, isn't it?)

Yeah, that's an old cemetery. Close to that fort. Military battle fought down there on Cabin Creek.

(Yeah)

Just about, lasted two hours. You might believe this but used to, on Sunday evening you could hear that battle going on.

(Well)

Hear the cannon going off. And hear the rifle firing.

(Hum)

Come late in the evening when one of these change in the weather you know.

(Yeah)

Yeah they still fighting over there.

(Yeah)

Well they sure did hear them. Ma heard them, daddy did too.

(Well)

Heard the sound. Hear them big cannons firing.

(Uh-huh)

That just about ten miles from where they lived.

(Yeah)

They could hear it plain.

(Yeah. Well that was a big battle wasn't it?)

TWO UNCLES WERE PRISONERS OF WAR AND SUFFERED GREAT HARDSHIP

Yeah, my mother's, two brothers were captured there. Right up there near the Pierce Ford.

(Yeah)
