

(Son: You ought to (not clear). They want us to get the work done before. My brother--we didn't (not clear) on Sunday. And whatever and I think of what he used to say when Saturday afternoon would come. He'd want us to get things and have things ready so we wouldn't have to do anything on Sunday,)

(That's right.)

(Son: And he'd say, well--when he didn't have anything set up for us to do. He said, "Well, the neighbors may come in on Saturday evening, so you be ready." Had to get everything organized you know.

Had things in order so we wouldn't have to do anything but get ready to go to Sunday School--to church. But now people lay off Sunday so they can forget their jobs. Used to be all day church and Sunday School.

(Well.)

I believe the majority of the people (not clear)--

(Son: Well (not clear), Saturday (not clear).)

HOME LIGHTING AND MUSIC MACHINE

(What kind of lights did you have at night?)

We had kerosene lamps.

(Kerosene lamps.)

I can remember as far as I know and that was my job to see about the lamp. That the globe was cleaned and the lamp was filled with kerosene. And in the community if one family run out of kerosene, why they'd go and borrow some.

(Yes.)

You didn't go to town every time. Just whenever it hit you.

(Son: Mama didn't I hear you say whenever you was a little girl--did your folks ever--your family ever use those, what they call tallow, or wick burns?)

Had a little old brass lamp. I just had a wick that you stuck in. And
