

That is Randolph.

(Oh, Randolph.)

(Son: That was when he just walked in the house of his step-father.)

(Yeah. And which one shot him now?)

Hampton.

(Bert Hampton.)

ONCE AN OUTLAW THEY WERE NEVER ACCEPTED BY THE COMMUNITY AGAIN

In those days it wasn't like it is now. Go down here and kill somebody.

And then they go down here and have a little trial, and he is turned loose.

And he just goes on as a respected person. Back in those days if a person did something bad, they was marked from then on out. And that to me was what made them seem like they was so bad. Because people didn't respect 'em.

(They knew they couldn't clear themselves.)

They didn't have no way. And then everybody turned them down. Nobody'd accept them then. I get vexed at the way things go down here in our country now.

(Son: (Sentence not clear).)

And they send them off after they convict (not clear).

INGENUITY OF FATHER - WINDLASS BUILT - LAND CONSERVATION

(Son: Where she was one born one place. And when she was nine months old moved to another.)

They moved to-- When I was born down there in the Horn Community.

(Yes.)

On the Grandpa Holland's home place. Mother and father lived on Tom Horn's-- close to Tom Horn's spring. In the old Horn school house where I was born.

(Yeah.)

For a while. And then they moved up there close to--well, all I can--the
