

T-359-3 (Third of Three Interviews)
WATTIE DEVAULT, CHEROKEE
INTERVIEWED BY: J. W. TYNER
INTERVIEW DATE: DECEMBER 20, 1968
TRANSCRIBED BY: DARLENE FIELDS

GENERAL SUBJECT: LIFE HISTORY MATERIALS

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION
STORY OF MARBLE QUARRY - MARBLE CITY
LIME - NEW INDUSTRY
HE HAS SERVED AS TOWN CLERK FOR 40 YEARS
COOKSON HILLS - OUTLAWS - EXPERIENCES
ED LOCKHART WAS AN OUTLAW - CAME DRESSED AS A WOMAN
HONESTY AMONG OUTLAWS - TWO INCIDENTS
CONCERNING SCHOOLS
CONCERNING RELATIVES

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Wattie DeVault is 78 years old. He was born and raised fourteen miles south of Marble City, in Sequoyah County, Oklahoma. He attended Wildkorse School near Sallisaw and then went to business school in Ft. Smith, Arkansas. He also studied law for three years. Mr. DeVault operated a general store in Marble City for many years and was town clerk for 40 years. He is now retired.

Note: The other interviews on this tape are: Frank Warren, Cherokee
Eva Barrett, Cherokee