

K. O. & G.

(The K. O. & G. And you saw this country before they ever had a railroad.)

Yeah, and I saw that train (inaudible).

(And you also saw them take it out, too.)

(Inaudible) taken it out down here.

(Yeah.)

You know people come in to live, and some of them move far away from here. It's getting lonelier and lonelier.

(Well.)

(Inaudible). We walked three miles to school. (Inaudible) today.

(Well.)

FATHER WAS DEPUTY SHERIFF IN GOING SNAKE DISTRICT

We (inaudible).

(Yeah. Your father, Mr. England, was he a farmer over around Westville or--?

No. He was deputy sheriff.

(Uh-huh, he was deputy sheriff there. That was in the Going Snake District, I guess.)

Yes.

(Uh-huh.)

He worked under the United States marshall.

(Yes.)

He wasn't too much.

(Well, you remember when they had the Indian courthouse over at Rose Prairie going then.),

(Inaudible) Saline Courthouse.

(Yeah, Saline Courthouse. Now it was a busy place over there at times.)
