

a whole lot since you can remember.)

Yes, it has. (Sentence not clear.) But they're all gone now. Most of them comes home every week-end.

DAYS BEFORE LOCUST GROVE AND PRYOR

(Before they had Locust Grove, where did your folks go to trade? They go to Salina or Wagoner?)

Well, they just go to the big--When we bought a big lot of groceries, we'd go to Wagoner.

(To Wagoner.)

And we'd go to Salina once in awhile.

(Yeah. Well, that was before Pryor started to grow then, I guess.) Store or two there.

(Yeah.)

We had a lot of (inaudible).

(Uh-huh.)

(Inaudible) allotted mine and my brother. Two of them are buried over there.

(Uh-huh.)

(Mrs. Welch's sentence not clear.)

(Yes.)

(Mrs. Welch's words inaudible.)

(Out on uh--Rose Prairie.)

No. We didn't have any in those days. We had (inaudible).

(Oh, land allotment is down there. At Spring Creek.)

(Mrs. Welch's reply not clear.)

(Yes.)

My daddy he (inaudible). He watches for fires, you know. They building a tower way up on the hill.