

(Now I've heard that -- .)

It was Illinois Station.

(Before it was Gore.)

Yeah. Oh, lord, yes.

(Well.)

It was the Campbell post office. Old Doctor Campbell he was the mail carrier.

(Yeah.)

They named the Illinois station after him. (Words irrelevant.) Lord, I don't know. There was a time when I was a kid.

RECALLS EARLY DAY OF FIRST RAILROAD

(Yeah. Was the railroad through here -- .)

It come through here.

(As far back as you remember.)

Yeah, let's see. I don't know how old I was. 'Cause I wasn't very old though.

The first trains that ever come through here.

(Well.)

If I knowed how old Bob Tyner was. I could tell you. Cricket's Bob. Cricket Tyner's Bob. Because he was, -- the first train come through here. Was when he was born.

(Well.)

And I don't have any idea. I wasn't more than four or five years old then.

(Well as far back as you can remember what was there. Just a store up here and -- .)

Just one store.

CAMPBELL POST OFFICE - ILLINOIS STATION - GORE

(Yeah what they call Illinois Station.)

Yeah on this side of the track. There's old Doctor Campbell had a store.
