

No, no roads, hardly.

(Hum-m.)

There's the Fields' live up here. And Aunt Anna Dora lived a way up here.

(Yeah.)

So going up that a way past the John Tyners.

(Uh-huh.)

And we lived down here. And the Williams family they lived on that field right over yonder.

(Uh-huh.)

Up from town. No there wasn't too many families living here long years ago. When I was a kid. Most everyone of them's gone.

(All the old Indians are gone.)

Yes, all the old ones.

EARLY DAY INDIANS ENJOYED VISITING - INCIDENTS

(Yeah those Indians really did enjoyed visiting each other.)

Oh lord yes.

(Just sit and talk by the hour.)

Well, we lived to Sulphur Springs there's lots of them come to see my daddy.

(Uh-huh.)

'Course we couldn't talk Cherokee. You know. And they'd never come unless he was there.

(Yeah.)

He could talk Creek language and Cherokee too.

(Uh-huh.)

And there was old Hunter Buck and Bill Webber, the Wildcats, some people named Wildcats. And they must have been too. (Laughter) Oh I just can't
