

chief, and she spread it out and she had to exchange, why, we had a big bundle of money 'bout like that. (laughter).

('Bout a big sack full of money, huh?)

Yes. I just remember it that just now because when we got our American money exchanged, why, it was twice as much or more. And I guess we used it while we were there, but I don't remember going to the store, anything like that. I do remember we got our money exchanged.

MORE ABOUT CHRISTMAS

(And at this Christmas party, were there gifts being presented to the guests or how did they--?)

Yes, they presented gifts to the guests. The children all got toys and older ones got different things that they could use, such as towels and different things that they give--combs, maybe colone of some kind.

(Well, in short, you were kinda glad to get back to San Antonio from Mexico?)

Yes, I was--I was. I don't know whether the others were or not, but I was really glad to get back to San Antonio. (laughter)

(So after you had your Christmas party, did you have some kind of Christmas dinner or did you have the party at night or how did they do that?)

Well, they had this Christmas party in the evening, but I imagine we had the Christmas dinner the next day.

TRIP WAS SATISFACTORY

(Well, then, after you left San Antonio, did you return to Oklahoma?)

Yes, we returned to Oklahoma and came home. The time we came home--I imagine we left San Antonio from where we was and then we had our Christmas party and dinner and later, why I remember we were coming home on the train.

(Now, just how do you sum up this whole experience of this trip down there?

Certainly, the--Mr. Wah-hre-she and my father had accomplished what they went down there for or--?)
