

Uh-huh. That's where the midgets lived.

(Yeah.)

I don't remember.

(I remember they showed 'em to Leona, you know. It was a kind of a house. It was a miniature house is what it was. And it was really something to see, you know, at that time. They showed my sister Leona. They took her over there. I guess, I was with her cause I remember seeing it. It was a small house where two midgets had lived. It was just a miniature house and just like a doll house. I mean everything was just small, you know. They thought it was just something to, you know, to tell her they would take her to see that, you know. Well, go ahead and continue on this--)

INTERESTING PLACES ENROUTE

I made a mistake on Mr. Lees.,,

(Lees.)

Mr. Lees. That was in Council Bluff, Iowa.

(Then, you went on to--did you go through the Sioux reservation when you went down through Black Hills? Must have.)

I guess so, we was in Spearfish. That's in South Dakota.

(I remember we stopped, in Spearfish--)

Is this on?

(It's on.)

I remember we got to South Dakota near Spearfish, South Dakota, where this party lived. We were there before we went--I believe it was after we left Spearfish. And we had camped there to that Mr. LaPlunt's ranch.

(That's in Montana.)

That was in Montana? I thought it was in South Dakota.

(I remember we went to--you remember visiting the fish hatchery in Spearfish?)
