

LEVI KEYS - GENERAL STORE

He had a store here, you know.

(Well.)

And you could find some of the (inaudible) things in there.

For the (inaudible).

(This was Uncle Levi Keys?)

Uh-huh.

(When did he establish a store here, Lucinda?)

Well, I just don't know. I had a paper here when they paid tax on it. So it was way back yonder. (Inaudible.)

(Uh-huh.)

Yeah. I don't know what I done with that tax paper.

(The store was right here on this location?)

Yeah. Right here. And where this building sets now.

(Well.)

And it burnt down. He's got it figured the income they had.

Put this--the numbers down.

(Yeah.)

And he's in some of these places, he's got so much a pound. What they sold coffee at, you know.

(Yeah.)

You know. And he made something on the coffee.

Jess: "Fort Gibson. I guess it took two or three days to go over there."

(Why yeah, it would to pull a--)

Yeah, they did.

(To pull a freight wagon from Fort Gibson to Wauhillaau.)

They made it in two days.

(In two days.)
