

Just think about his grandfather. No telling how old he would be.

(Yeah.)

(Not clear) has an ideal climate.

STRIP PAYMENTS - PEGGS WAS A VERY OLD TOWN

(Does anyone know about when Peggs was started, as a little business or town.)

Frank: Well, I wouldn't know but I imagine Jimmy (not clear) can tell you.

(Uh-huh.)

Because they come here about (not clear). Now old lady Demoss over here.

She was (not clear). That's where lots of children went to school. Even orphans went to school there. During the time when Indians got strip payments, they had to go to Saline Courthouse where they went to get all that. And it's up, out of reach, you know.

(Uh-huh.)

That's where they got them clocks like that one right there, you know. Them old big clocks.

(Uh-huh.)

They all got one. Everyone of them had gone up there and got one of them clocks.

(Well, where did the Indians have their meetings down in this Peggs prairie country in the early days?)

Molly: You mean church -- .

STOMP DANCES ARE REALLY RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES

(Well church. You know they have their stomp dances and so on.)

Frank: Well they used to have stomp dances. You know where Fox's store is?

Well about mile west and about half-a-mile south of it. That's where they had stomp dances, when we first come to this country.

Molly: I don't remember -- .
