

of Fairfax when they were younger (9). I think that looks like--it looks like 'bout 30's ain't it?

(Um-huh.)

And this is another picture I have--It's Mr. McCarthy of Hominy (10). And here was a great man to oversee our tribe.

(Where did--what clan or anything--do you know anything more about Edgar McCarthy?)

No. I just know 'bout him going to Washington, you know, and seeing about tribal affairs a lot. That's all I know. And this man is--I have--I have His name is Kahwah howah. That must be Mr. Roahhorse isn't it (11)? Very nice picture of him. And this is another picture I have that is Tom West's wife (12). And I have a picture here that I don't recall the name. It seems like he's dressed in old Osage way. He's got on the Indian shirt and what they call "G-string." (no picture) Then I have a picture here of a man from--for Ross Maker, a man from Hominy (13). It must be 'bout in the 30's isn't it?

(That's my dad, huh?)

Um-huh.

(When you--he looked like that when you married him?)

Yes. Uh-huh. Then I have another picture here of some people that was taken when they were quite young. This picture I have, there's two of them together. One's name is Ralph Hamilton (14). He was originally here--from here, but he had lived in Fairfax. And this other one here Jim McKinley. Wonder why they call him Jim McKinley (14)? I think he went by Rusk later. And I have a picture here that this lady is Mrs. Grace Abbott (15). She was originally from Gray Horse. And her last days she lived--was from Hominy. She moved to Hominy. That's your Uncle Fred (16). Shall I say on that?
