

Long way before I got to be young man.

TROUBLE - NEW JAY AND OLD JAY

(Uh-huh. Well you got to see that town of Jay and Gove grow up then, too, didn't you?)

Yeah. I was here when they had that big trouble over there too.

(Well what was that about?)

New Jay and old Jay you know.

(Yeah)

Trying to have a courthouse site or something.

(Yeah county seat there. Well do they get into a fight over it?)

Well they was trying to do a little fighting there.

(Yeah)

And there was an Indian called Sam Boney. And we had a man down here at Grove called Bill Chaney. You probably heard of him.

(Uh-huh)

Law man. And I think old Sam Boney made him, Chaney drop his gun.

(Well. Yeah it must have been kind of serious then.)

Yeah it was awhile.

(It's a wonder someone hadn't got shot then.)

Yeah. Old Jay finally won out. New Jay built a courthouse.

(Yeah)

(Sentence not clear)

(Where was old Jay from New Jay now?)

Old Jay's about where it's at.

(Yeah)

New Jay way back north of there.

(Back north, uh-huh. About how far north was it?)

Well it's uh--a town, it's all combined now.