

T-369-2 (Second of Three Interviews)

CYNTHIA DOWNING ROSS, CHEROKEE

INTERVIEWED BY: J. W. TYNER

INTERVIEW DATE: JANUARY 3, 1969

TRANSCRIBED BY: FLORA QUINATA

PROOFREAD BY: NONA KERR

GENERAL SUBJECT: MISCELLANEOUS EARLY HISTORY OF WASHINGTON COUNTY;
FAMILY HISTORY

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION-

FAMILY SETTLED NEAR PEGGS AND WESTVILLE, OKLAHOMA

INDIAN BOYS FRIGHTENED A WHITE WOMAN

SCHOOLS AND MISSIONS

VALUE OF DAWES COMMISSION

WICKLIFF BOYS WERE PARDONED - PEOPLE PLEASED

EARLY DAY TOWN - ROADS AND TRADING CONDITIONS

TOWN OF ADAIR WAS NAMED FOR A DUTCH-IRISH FAMILY

NATURAL GAS, WOOD AND COAL USED FOR HEATING

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Cynthia Downing Ross was born in 1881 in the Cherokee Nation. She was born and reared on the original allotment of her family and still lives there at the present time. She was educated in the country schools of Peggs and Tahlequah and also attended Cherokee Female Seminary.

Note: The other interviews on this tape are: Frank Tyner, Cherokee.
Scott Bradshaw, Osage