

(Around Nowata. North of Nowata.)

And around Delaware.

(Yeah, and around Delaware.)

I had a boy selling insurance around Pryor. He went down Texas (Sentence not clear). Well that's all I'm doing here--Just sitting and waiting.

WHITEOAK IS A VERY OLD TOWN

(About Whiteoak -- Do you remember much about early Whiteoak?)

Yeah.

(It was. Did it have a name or did they call it any--)

No, it was Whiteoak.

(Whiteoak Indian Cemetery. How far from Whiteoak is it?)

About two miles.

(Uh-huh, right straight south.)

Straight south. That schoolhouse set a mile southwest.

(Yeah)

(Not clear)

(Uh-huh)

(Sentence not clear)

(Yeah, old man Pryor is the one. He would know all about it.)

(Sentence not clear.)

(I saw him just a few days ago there in Locust Grove. Well does anyone know how old that Whiteoak town is. It's been there a long time, I guess.)

Well it's been there. And moved down in another place, down there by the schoolhouse.

(Yeah)

Old store there was run by one of my uncles.

(Yeah)
