

(Not clear.) I think (not clear). Opened that store up (not clear).

(Yeah)

(Not clear). I know my uncle sold groceries and supplies. I know all of 'em. I used to go to school with him -- Oliver Haynes.

(Well)

He has got a store out there. It's a little old island. People go on down the river. He sure was a talker. (Laughter) He was by himself but he invite anybody in.

(Oliver Haynes.)

That store is still in operation.

(Yeah that's rough. Now where was that?)

Wolf.

(Wolf Indian school. Which way from Whiteoak was it?)

(Not clear). Southwest part of the section there.

(Hum-m)

. Fixed up in there. (Sentence not clear.)

(Yeah)

I don't know about Wolf.

(I've heard of it. Those that haven't died seem like they moved to town or moved some place else.)

GREEN CORN DANCE - BUFFALO DANCE

(Randy Carter he says they still have stomp dances down there. And he said he let me know when they have the next one down there this spring. (not clear.) )

(Sentence not clear.)

(Yeah)

There's another out (not clear).

(That's the Green Corn Dance. Out there the next one.)