

(Uh-huh)

Christian Church, right here, and then big new house right there. That's where Crockett's moved it to. Willis wanted to build a new house up here on the lake about two years ago. So he sold his house to Alene Carpenter and she moved it off down there.

Flint: Had a blacksmith shop where they sold teams, sold outfit. Make you (words not clear)

(That would be one of the oldest houses in this country then. Would it not?)

Jenny: Well it partly is. One that was down here was moved and (At this point, conversation inaudible--three people speaking at once.) My grandfather built it as a warehouse.

(Uh-huh)

They used this old Statler house till it burned. So then my dad wanted this and it was moved from right over there. But Mr. Gounds has tore down all the old houses.

(Uh-huh)

Lady: This one right over here belongs to Chandlers. Then down from there was my grandparents house. Built a new one. Most of them right here, the Breedlove house is still over here. They cut a lot of it off over there where Miss Spillman lives. It was a hotel at that time.

(Well)

But its been dehorned. Bob Graham lives out there. He cut part of it off and sold it.

(Did you ever hear what the translation of Ogeechee is?)

Well its still some paper around here somewhere, among some old newspapers,

I use to hear them say it was the land of the rising sun. But I don't remember what this paper says. That I--What does Ogeechee mean?
