

(1894)

Mrs. Wolf: He know some about outlaws, like Ned' Christie.

(Well)

Mrs. Wolf: And he knows some of the real old people.

(Yeah)

Mrs. Wolf: You see--

(And do you remember Goback Christie?)

Wiley: Oh yes.

(Yeah. He was a fine man.)

Yeah. We used to go over there. He had a little shop.

(Uh-huh)

He said, "I want to fix your gun." If your plow needs sharpening I'd take them over there.

(Well)

Mrs. Wolf: His house is still there.

(Yes it's still there that old--)

Mrs. Wolf: The well out there my daughter come down and took some pictures of it. That well, my father dug that well.

(Well)

Mrs. Wolf: Started in about 3 o'clock one day and got done. The sun was about down when he got done.

RECALLS HOW TAHLEQUAH GOT ITS NAME

(Uh-huh. And you say you don't remember how Rabbit Trap got its name, do you?)

Wiley: No, I don't.

(Uh-huh)

Mrs. Wolf: I wouldn't know unless they'd be a lot of rabbits, you know.
