

I know one thing about Tahlequah. It mean "Two is enough." There is a story about that.

(Yeah)

Mrs. Wolf: And wasn't but two. And they named it Tahlequah. You know, "two's enough."

(Well. Yeah Two, ta-le-qua.)

Two's enough. That's why there was supposed to be two, three big men. Well they had girl from over there, ~~in~~ a school teacher up there I guess, knows. He had some college over there. He learned a lot of that stuff.

(Uh-huh)

And that's how he understood it.

(Yes)

Mrs. Wolf: What they told him in school.

JOHNSON SPADE WAS INDIAN PREACHER

(And this Spade Mountain Mission was named after Johnson Spade?)

Wiley: Uh-huh Old man, preacher.

(He was an old Indian preacher. And back over here then that's Spade Mountain?)

Mrs. Wolf: Yeah.

Right over there.

(Yeah)

Mrs. Wolf: Uh--

LOOKOUT TOWER BUILT ON HIGH POINT OF SPADE MOUNTAIN

Wiley: High in the mountain is some bad country. They built a lookout tower. And anybody gets up there, over that. And uh--course its gone now. Oh about ten-twelve foot high.

(Hum)

Wiley: That far on, it stands. So you just follow that and you get up there
