

(Yeah)

That's the only place they had for you to ride.

(Uh-huh)

They run it that way about a year, maybe a little longer.

EARLY DAYS IN 1894

(When you came here in 1894. It was pretty wild country here. Wasn't it?)

Yes it was.

(Uh-huh)

You know. Me and the girl I married, Ida Yode, We played for these old wild dances here.

(Yeah)

She was a good fiddler. And I was too. And I played piano or organ. She did too. And we played for them.

(Well)

Old Bill Warren over there. He used to give more dances than anybody.

(Yeah)

One fellow kept uh-getting around us. I told him, "Now we just kids. And Bill you see that they don't run over us."

(Uh-huh)

A PARTNER - BEN HOLF

One great big old fellow, his name was Ben Holf. Well he had a store down in here in old Ketchum. And he kinda big hearted.

(Yeah)

He kept on. Finally he act like he wanted to sit down on this young girl's lap.

(Uh-huh)

Dad Gum, old Bill Warren jumped up. And hooked him right under the chin there.
