

(Now who was this that was told--was this her grandfather?)

(Mrs. McDaniels speaks to Eugenia in Kiowa.)

His grandma give him the power. And my daddy, he learn it--he got it by himself, too. That's why he's good medicine man. They know my father.

(Now, did this belong to your father?)

See, (holding up another object) this thing come from buffalo inside (speaking Kiowa).

(Mrs. McDaniels: See, that was her grandmother's, first. Then she gave it to--)

(Eugenia speaks Kiowa again) --no, this is a buffalo inside. They kill the buffalo and then take it out of his stomach.

(Yeah. One of these hair balls.)

(Eugenia speaks Kiowa with Mrs. McDaniels. We look at a fan made of flicker feathers.)

(This is the tail, here.)

Eugenia speaks Kiowa with Mrs. McDaniels, again.)

(Mrs. McDaniels: She don't know what that bird is in there. pape. She said, is the name of it.)

(What is it?)

(Mrs. McDaniels: papê. She said. A bird. But she doesn't know the English for it. She said they live by the waters.)

(Now is this the papê.?)

This bird runs fast like a arrow.

(Some man in the background says: "Shore bird.")

(They do. Roadrunner?)

No.
